There was a fall of .31 inches of rain in Honolulu city last night.

Chile Gonzales is negotiating for a benefit to his company in Honolulu.

Several shooting matches are in progress at Kakaako butts this afternoon.

W. H. Hickey is again after his father-in-law and the father-in-law is after Hickey.

Will Nott will pilot the goat hunting expedition into the Waianae mountains tonight.

Now that "Il Trovatore" is nearly sold out at Wall, Nichols Co., "Jane" is all the rage.

Doyle was fined $10 in Police Court this morning for flooding a neighbor's yard with water.

Two charges of assault and battery were preferred against W. H. Dickey, arrested last night.

Union meeting of the Young People's Societies at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow at 6:30 p. m.

Miss Ethel Smith entertained a party of her school mates and young friends Friday evening.

Surveyor C. H. Kleugel returned this morning by the Iwawani from a business trip to Hawaii.

Argument in the Trouseau case was finished in the Supreme court today and the case was submitted.

Word was received from C. R. Collins. He has not yet reached Hilo, but reports doing a fine business.

Tam How and Ah Toon have gone to the reef for two months on the charge of maintaining a lottery.

J. T. Waterhouse found such excellent results from his ads last week that he makes no change today.

Col. Nathan Appleton will lecture at Oahu College at 1:15 p. m. Monday on the subject of the Panama canal.

A meeting of the officers of the First Regiment, N. G. H., will be held at headquarters at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

In Police Court today three Chinese paid $10 each for gambling and two $50 each for opium. Wong Tai Poon was one of the latter.

Wheelbarrows, cork mats for the bath room, lawn sprinklers and umbrella stands are a few of the articles W. W. Dimond mentions.

Ah Yau, contempt and perjury, and C. G. Parsons, chap. 13, sec. 9, P. C., have gone over to Monday in Police Court. The latter is out on $400 bonds.

Lewis & Co. have an explanatory ad in this issue, telling of their method of buying and how you are benefitted by purchasing your groceries of them.

Reserved seats for the Frawley engagement are transferable, a fact not generally known. Choice seats are still to be had at Hobron Drug Company.

Ah Yau, the Chinaman mentioned elsewhere as having tried to pass for another in a Police Court trial, was again arrested Friday afternoon for perjury.

A brother of L. D. Timmons entertained W. J. Bryan during his recent stay of a day at Rocky Mount, N. C., where the candidate spoke to several thousand people.

All the Chinese contract laborers brought by the Peru will be shipped out on Monday. The Coptic, which falls due Monday from the Orient, will bring 500 more.

When searched at the station Friday night a horn of opium was found on Ah Chong, who was arrested for investigation in another matter. He was charged with having opium in possession.

There has been a delay in compiling the census returns of Honolulu in consequence of which the figures will not be available until next week. The population is known, however, to be in round figures 30,000.

Miss Lottie Parmelee, after an absence of three years, is cordially welcomed home by a large circle of acquaintances. While abroad Miss Parmelee has won distinction as a musician, being a prize graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

HAPPILY MATED.

City Young Man Returns from Hamakua With a Charming Bride.

L. de L. Ward and bride, nee Miss Mary E. Rickard, arrived by the Iwawani this morning from Hamakua. They were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Honokaa, on Wednesday evening. Bishop Willis officiated.

The affair was a very pretty one. Relatives and a number of friends were present. The home of the Rickards was brilliantly illuminated and decorated for the occasion. Miss Nellie and Mr. W. H. Rickard, Jr., sister and brother of the bride, officiated as bridesmaid and best man respectively.

Miss Rickard, the bride, is well known and very popular in social life of Honolulu and of her own island. Mr. Ward is a clerk in the offices of W. G. Irwin & Co. He has been for a long time closely identified with social affairs and is deservedly popular. Mr. and Mrs. Ward will live on King street near Independence Park.

A WEDDING SOON.

A Boston Physician and One of Honolulu's Fair Daughters.

The engagement was announced today of Dr. T. T. French, of Boston, now visiting this country for the second or third time, and Miss Phenie King, one of Honolulu's fairest and most popular daughters. The wedding is to occur very soon. Perhaps the united couple will leave on the next up trip of the Australia. They go at once to Glasgow, where Dr. French will for two years pursue further his medical studies. The gentleman has former friends here and brought letters to a number of the more prominent citizens. He has recently been visiting his friend Mr. Churchill, United States consul at Apia, Samoa. Miss King is very well known in Honolulu and for her intelligence and grace of manner admired by all acquaintances. She is thoroughly American, having revolutionary ancestry from the families of both her father and mother. Mr. G. W. R. King is well known as a Californian, a former army officer here and at present an accountant.

Do You Drive?

During my recent visit to the United States I had unusual facilities for purchasing carriages of every description for cash. The builders wanted money; I wanted wagons. I selected a number of fine

PHAETONS,

SURREYS,

BUGGIES, and

ROAD WAGONS.

Having bought for cash and had advantages of trade discounts, I can offer them to the Honolulu public at lower prices than they can buy them. I also bought

G. SCHUMAN.

PERSISTENCE WON.

While on her rounds as census enumerator in Manoa valley, Miss Rose Davidson struck a proposition which called for considerable pluck to handle, but she proved equal to the occasion. A surly individual of foreign parentage refused in the most positive manner to fill out the blank. After exhausting all her patience the young lady left. Next morning she appeared at the house with a warrant and a policeman. The man saw where he was at and readily accepted the compromise offered by filling up the blank.
